Split Double-header.

Special to The Washington Herald. Danville, Va., Aug. 22.-Norfolk took the first half of the double-header here to-day by batting Loos all over the lot. and as a result of his wild throwing and several others made behind him, Danville had an easy thing of the second contest, hitting Savage for fourteen hits for lowed only two measly singles, which could be termed scratch hits. He had the visitors completely at his mercy, and only one man got as far around the circuit as second base. Three home runs by
